EDUCATION in McKeesport High School is directed by Superintendent of Schools Dr. Leo R. Travis and by nine School Board members elected by the citizens of the community. President of the Board of Directors for 1955 is Dr. Clifford Bryce; vice president is Mr. Harold Blid.

As Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Travis has the responsibility of managing the affairs of the School District. The Superintendent develops new courses of instruction, revises old ones, organizes schools and classes, and supervises methods of instruction. He is responsible for purchasing supplies and equipment. He nominates personnel for approval by the Board and is responsible for supervising the work of all school employees. The superintendent prepares the school district budget and makes financial reports; he is charged with the construction, maintenance, and operation of school buildings. By helping the public to understand the Board's policies and school aims, he is a specialist in public relations.

Dr. Travis' assistants are Dr. James C. Craig, Assistant to the Superintendent in charge of Elementary Education; Miss M. Rigby Hill, Secretary of the School District; and Mr. R. D. Cannon, Assistant to the Superintendent in charge of Buildings.

The Board of School Directors is an example of self-government in action, for by electing members to serve on the Board, the public is directing its own school system. The Board represents the will of the people, but the members must also be leaders of the people, for their basic responsibility is to provide for all pupils educational programs that will meet the needs of the community. It is the Board's duty to provide and finance good schools, to maintain suitable school buildings, to develop good staffs, and to establish policies for the school system. In regular monthly meetings and in special committee sessions, the School Board discharges its responsibilities for educational leadership.

Administration

EIGHT PRINCIPALS AND ADVISERS are in charge of the 3265 students in the four buildings of McKeesport High School.

Dr. Howard C. McElroy is principal and Mr. Shelby Erwin is vice principal in the High School where sophomores, juniors, and seniors receive instruction in commercial, academic, business, and college preparatory courses. Miss H. Gertrude Brown is the Girls' Adviser and Mr. Harry C. Pry is the Guidance Counselor at the High School.

Mr. Arthur O. Horn is principal and Mr. Bert Johnson is in charge of Vocational Education at Vocational School. Tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade students receive training in courses that range from commercial art to sheetmetal work. Mr. John S. McFeaters is principal of George Washington, and Mr. Benjamin B. Disegi is principal of Shaw Avenue, the two buildings where ninth grade students begin their studies in McKeesport High.

This year marked several changes in high school administration. Mr. Horn, principal of George Washington for fifteen years, became principal of Vocational School. Mr. Erwin, who had been student counselor since 1940, became vice-principal of the High School. Mr. McFeaters, assistant principal of the High School since 1939, became principal of George Washington. Mr. Disegi was named principal of Shaw Avenue; since he joined the McKeesport Schools in 1940, Mr. Disegi had been a teacher of physical education at Vocational School. Mr. Pry, a teacher of English in McKeesport since 1934, was named Guidance Counselor.

Faculty

LEARNING is the most important part of school. To learn the student must have presented to him facts that he can grasp and understand. The teacher accomplishes this difficult task. Whether the subject is math or shorthand, biology or history, the teacher helps the student to overcome the difficulties of the course. A teacher is not only an instructor, but also a friend, an understanding companion.

When the student has become a graduate, he realizes that the teachers who gave detailed assignments, long examinations, and occasional reprimands were in reality shaping his character. Encouragement and praise given to a deserving student are cherished and remembered throughout life. The teacher is a guide through the important years.

Students enrolled in Distributive Education have a good start in the business world. Open to seniors the course combines a selling job in the afternoon with morning classes of academic subjects. In this class scene Mr. Carlson, teacher of DE, observes Nancy Ayres' demonstration of the art of arranging a display. The student salesmen are Bob Hoffman, Pat Hornick, Joan Little, and Joan Miller.

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT COUNCIL

THIS YEAR's Student Council, with Mr. Harry L. Carlson as adviser, planned pep rallies, sponsored the Sadie Hawkin's Dance, and conducted an intensive Community Chest drive.

Council officers are elected from student nominations in a busy campaign featuring a primary and a general election. Senior Dave Rankin presided over this year's Executive Council composed of six officers and three students from each class. The Executive Council meets twice each week, and the General Council of two members from each home room meets once each month.

STUDENT COUNCIL

NEW THIS YEAR at Vocational is the Student Council. Elected with political campaign fanfare, the group works for the betterment of school conditions, arranges a social program, and helps make school regulations. The Council sponsored a bowling league for Vocational students.

A companion organization, also new, is Gear Club. An activities honorary society, its members consist of the officers of all other clubs. Gear Club is in charge of the social calendar. Among the group's responsibilities are furthering good citizenship in the school and encouraging participation in school activities.

PLANNING AND MAKING a yearbook is a combination of work and fun. The work includes identifying pictures and faces, sizing pictures to fit a dummy, writing captions and stories, typing copy, and drawing page layouts. Although there is tedious work involved, a cheerful group of teenagers has fun preparing a yearbook.

Staff members learn to expend energy usefully and to develop original ideas. Cooperation and patience create a smooth running organization in which students learn to work together to prepare our Yough-a-Mon.

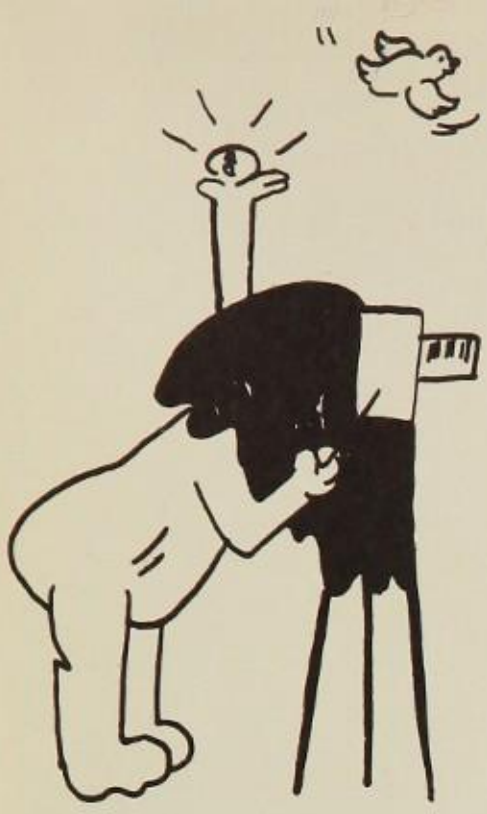
Staff artist Diane Hacker gets admiration from Janice Cray and Don Menzies. The sketches throughout the book were done by Diane. Janice, in addition to her typing duties, conducted the Patrons' campaign. Don was in charge of the sports Department.



Typist Arlene Supp and Copy Editor Rose Pochciol overhaul the files. Rose kept track of letters, write-ups, and notes, putting them safely away where they could readily be found.

Staff members Pat McGinn, Dave Mayfield, Barbara Danielson, Marsha Fairbaugh, Nick Sisley and Lois Amman gather around the desk in Room 210. As Pat draws page layouts, Dave and Barbara examine the newest proofs from the photographer with suggestions from Nick. Marsha, who was in charge of the Organizations pages, and Lois, who typed manuscript, check accuracy of names. Not in picture: Kay Pry, Associate Editor Dave Wineland, and Earl Cook.

Connie Baczkowski and Frances Caulfield get more sentences ready for the printer. Connie proofread manuscript and was in charge of the Senior section. Frances prepared typed copy and took care of group photos for the Underclasses section.

SENIOR BAND

WITH 112 MEMBERS and bright two-tone uniforms, Senior Band is McKeesport High's largest and most colorful music group.

Under the direction of Mr. Joseph Krysik, the band is busy from pre-school marching practices in August until its final appearance on the graduation platform in June. The group appears at football games, in local parades, at civic functions, in a Mid-Winter concert, in the Spring Music Festival, and in district and state music contests.

During football season Senior Band presents new half-time drills at each game, both at home and away. This means a fresh show every week for ten weeks. Daily practices during the season are usually two hours long, beginning at eight in the morning.

In the Pennsylvania Music and Forensic League competition, the Senior Band has won the top rating of "Superior" for six straight years, the most recent being the win on May 1, 1954, at Williamsport, Pa.

MAJORETTES—FIRST ROW: Emily Rodavich, Helen Ferry, Joan Prailey, Geri Wallace, Carol Carnahan, Billie Waltower, Betty Samurda, Andrea Petach, Leah Coe.

RED AND BLUE

ANY QUESTION concerning McKeesport High School is answered in our school newspaper, the Red and Blue. Directed by Editor-in-Chief Mary Ellen Jones and advised by Mr. Foster Beatty, editors and reporters present a news coverage of all school events and provide an outlet for student ideas.

Like any other top notch newspaper, the Red and Blue contains stories, original cartoons, photographs, and editorials which express the student's viewpoint. Through hard work the staff has published a newspaper which won first honors at the University of Pittsburgh's High School Publications Institute.

GEORGE WASHINGTON REPORTERS—Standing around chief reporter Rose Marie Savasta are James Flynn, Pete Malloy, Sue Hilty, Connie Campbell, Janet Rosenberg, Frankie Fedas.

SENIOR CHOIR

BEST KNOWN of McKeesport High's vocal music groups is Senior Choir, directed by Mr. Richard Barrett. On May 1, 1954, the Choir earned the top rating of "Superior" in state-wide competition.

Although A Cappella performs before civic groups and in assembly programs, its main efforts are directed to four yearly projects: operetta, winter concert, spring concert, and forensic competition. Special groups like the Octet and Girls' Ensemble are drawn from membership in the Choir.

The group's student governing board was headed this year by President Vince Barth. The other officers: Dave Boyd, vice president; Dolores Patton, secretary; Richard Beidl, manager; Marilyn Overand, librarian.

MUSIC APPRECIATION—Jack Hammitt illustrates dominant harmony chords in Mr. Barrett's history and appreciation of music class. Other class members are Erma Little, Cassie Niedzialek, Adrienne Geltz—seated, and William Rendulic, Dolores Patton, Tom Rosetti—standing. For seniors interested in the study of music the class offers a basic understanding of harmony and solfeggio.

SENIOR GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

SENIOR ORCHESTRA

BEETHOVEN AND HAYDN echo in the halls of McKeesport High when Senior Orchestra responds to the baton of Mr. Joseph Krysik. With strings, woodwinds, brass, and percussion instruments, the group plays advanced music. Daily class meetings and special 8:00 A.M. rehearsals prepare the orchestra for its winter and spring concerts and for contest competition. On May 1, 1954, at Williamsport, Senior Orchestra won the top Pennsylvania rating of "Superior."

SPEECH

SPEECH AND DRAMATICS were organized in a new program this year, under the guidance of Miss Helen Malseed. With the basic aim of having the student enjoy expressing himself, both groups present programs and compete in Forensic League contests.

The Debate Team discussed the topic: Should the Federal government initiate a policy of free trade among the free nations of the world? Speech Team members give original orations, readings and extemporaneous talks. Newest feature was Sophomore Speech, two groups learning the fundamentals of speech as preparation for membership in Dramatics Class and Speech Club.

DRAMATICS

FIRST ROW: S. Tully, L. Lundberg, J. Caughey, B. Frey, C. Pyle, K. Madden, D. Lewis, P. Lugarich, C. Mills, M. Wills, G. Morrison, B. Millington, G. Guggenheim, K. Calman, C. Shermer. SECOND ROW: P. FOOTBALL

MC KEESPORT HIGH wrapped up its 1954 football campaign with a record of four victories and six defeats. This doesn't tell the story, however, as the Tigers, coached by Harold "Duke" Weigle, proved to be a troublesome opponent in WPIAL Class AA competition.

Getting off to a poor start, the 1954 Tigers won only one of their first four games. Then came a pair of striking upsets as they downed high-ranking New Castle, 12-6, in a well-played game, racking up 264 yards and 16 first downs; the next week they proceeded to hand a 19-13 set-back to the Trojans from Johnstown, who were rated before the contest as top team in points in the Class AA race.

Following this taste of victory, the Tiger gridders suffered another slump, dropping three in a row; in the finale, with a combination that clicked, they romped over Turtle Creek, 27-6.

All the way

LED BY CO-CAPTAINS Tom Markovich and Gene Danko and coached by "Neenie" Campbell, the 1955 basketball team broke record after record to attain the top rung of the basketball ladder: the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association championship.

Fine teamwork, sharp shooting, and smooth ball handling were marks of the Tiger team that earned a total of 1987 points in 29 games. The champions averaged better than 68 points per game, set a new record of 26 wins in one season, and scored a record-breaking high of 91 points against Elizabeth. Gene Danko, named to the All-State Team, shattered individual records; he made 163 free throws and tied with Stu Heller with 138 field goals to lead MHS scoring with 439 points.

Fan support for the team was high throughout the season with packed houses for regular games at Vocational Gym and playoffs at Pitt Field House, culminating in a burst of enthusiasm with 4280 fans trekking to Philadelphia for the championship match with Chester. One thousand students and adults joined the band aboard a chartered train; others traveled by plane, bus, and automobile. In all, 8482 spectators crowded the Palestra to witness the thrill-packed finale.

A whirlwind first quarter in the championship tilt saw McKeesport High School outdistance Chester by a score 22-11. In the second quarter the Tigers were overtaken, the lead seesawing until the third period ended in a 40-40 tally. Early in the final stanza Chester gained a four-point lead. With four minutes remaining, McKeesport High School closed the breach as Glenn Shample made two points; Tom Markovich, three; Stu Heller, one; and Dave Rankin, two. Final score—McKeesport 54, Chester 48.

The first state championship to come to McKeesport since 1921 brought a city-wide day of celebration. At 10:00 students gathered for a rally at Vocational Gym, followed by a parade led by school and city officials to downtown McKeesport. An overflow crowd attended the student Victory Dance in the evening.

THE PRIZE—Dave Rankin and Tom Markovich join Coach Campbell to display the state championship trophy. The impressive trophy is inscribed with the names of fifteen basketball players.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Winning nineteen of their twenty games, the Junior Varsity, coached by Mr. James Steel, had one of the best seasons in J.V. history. Losing only the opening game of the season, the reserves swept through league play undefeated.

SHAW AVENUE—Coach Edmund Kittiko's Shawnees also gathered laurels, as they annexed the Section 6 Junior WPIAL crown. The Shaw quint won all ten league games and lost only two of nine exhibitions; they closed the season with an outstanding 17 and 2 mark.

GOLF

TIGER GOLFERS in the spring of 1954 came within three points of retaining the Section 5 championship. After sweeping easily through five of their six regular matches, Coach Campbell's squad bowed to Turtle Creek in a playoff by a 9-6 tally. The lowest score for the season was 76, shot by Mayfield (May 11) and Sisley (May 15), followed closely by 77, shot by Dorenda (May 7) and Geruschat (May 15).

1954 GOLF SQUAD—David Mayfield, Frank Geruschat, Nick Sisley, Harry Riemenschnieder, Stephen Dorenda, Coach Campbell.

BASEBALL

COACH FALLQUIST's Tiger nine closed the 1954 session with a record of four wins to six losses. Three of the victories were exhibitions with Donora, Pitcairn, and Glassport; the fourth was a league game with Munhall. Five of the losses were in Section 18 competition against Clairton, Duquesne, and Munhall; the sixth was a post-season exhibition with Glassport. Ron Maser hurled good ball for the Tigers, striking out an average of six men per game.

Rightfielder Richard Pomycala at bat in the opener against Donora on the old diamond at Renzie Park. The final two games were played on new Helen Richey Memorial Field.

Out by two strides is Ray Neyman in the opening inning of the first game against Munhall, a no-hitter that left MHS on the blank end of an 8-0 tally. Coaching at first is Roddy Washowich.

McKEESPORT'S TRACK TEAM under Coach Charles Schaeffer and Assistant Coach Ben Disegi copped three of their seven 1954 meets. The thinclads displayed real fight in a thrilling event with Greensburg when they came from behind after trailing for two and a half hours, to win by a scant 1-1/3 points. McKeesport captured the first two meets, then faltered until the finale when they exploded against Turtle Creek, 102-25. On May 1, at the WPIAL Relays in Latrobe, the Tigers scored 5 points and on May 14 compiled 15 points for fifth plate in the Independent District Meet at Mount Lebanon.

TENNIS

GIRLS' TENNIS—Each spring classes for beginners are offered under the direction of Mrs. Betty Greenewald. The girls practice the basic strokes of the game and learn the rules, scoring, and court structure. In the photo, Betty Anuszkiewicz, Connie Baczkowski, Lucy Yarnovic, Barb Frey, and Judy Wargo watch Mrs. Greenewald and Marie Olinski practice a serve.

TWO 4-1 WINS over North Huntingdon gave Coach Joe Black's tennis squad their only victories in the 1954 season. Twice both Edgewood and Wilkinsburg handed the Tiger netters setbacks, Edgewood blanking the Tigers both times.

Naughty Marietta

Dolly Patton as Lizette.

VICTOR HERBERT'S famous operetta, Naughty Marietta, was this year's presentation of the A Cappella Choir, directed by Mr. Richard Barrett.

With a cast of nearly 100, the colorful show entertained with music and fun three capacity audiences on December 9, 10, 11, 1954. Leading roles were sung by JoAnn Colflesh, Dolores Patton, Dave Boyd, Vince Barth, Erma Jean Little, Carol Dannels, and Victor Bell.

Accompanying music was provided by an ensemble, consisting of Jack Hammitt, piano; Cassie Niedzialek, organ; Lorraine Meskosvski, vibraphone; Danny Pavlic, accordion; Reed Gilchrist, bass.

Jo Ann Colflesh as Marietta

Captain Dick Warrington (Vince Barth) with the Governor (Gordon Ewers) and his secretary (Bill Smart) discuss the capture of pirate Bras Piquè.

Etienne (Dave Boyd), son of the Governor, thanks Dick Warrington for delivering the official papers from the King of France, permitting the search for Bras Piquè.

The auction during the Mardi Gras ball in the garden of the governor's palace, one of the show's big scenes.

Silas Slick (Victor Bell), comic lead, asks why he should waste his time on only one girl . . . Etienne (Dave Boyd) derides Adah (Erma Little) for her jealousy. "Love," he sneers, "is a large word. It is like a wind that can blow in many directions."

DANCES

SCHOOL LIFE has some of its most exciting moments at the dances scattered throughout the term. From the smallest after-meeting frolic to the fanciest formal, dances are fun.

The Class of 1954 held its big event, the Senior Prom, on May 28, at the Vocational School, featuring a carousel theme (pictured on the opposite page). An after-prom party, sponsored by local clubs and civic groups, was held until breakfast at the Vogue Terrace.

Highlight of the Freshman Prom, held at George Washington, May 28, was the announcement of the ideal boy and ideal girl. From the left are Milan Dimich and Donna Smith from Shaw Avenue, and Karen Dulany and George Smith from George Washington.

Named Ideal Girl and Ideal Boy of the Class of 1954 at the John Shaw Hi-Y's Coronation Ball, June 6, were Roberta Henry and George Kilpa. The "ideals" were elected from nominations made by the Hi-Y and the Y-Teens.

SKY HIGH

COMEDY COMBINED with suspense to entertain and delight when the Class of 1954 presented Sky High by Florence Ryerson and Alice Miller. Directed by Mr. Ralph Kerns, who was assisted by seniors Ruth Bielski and Arlene Gland, the play had a two-night run on April 28 and 29, 1954, in the high school auditorium.

The seniors portrayed a group of college students marooned at a skiing lodge which also was headquarters for a group of spies. The young people experienced thrills and faced dangers, but emerged victorious by the final curtain.

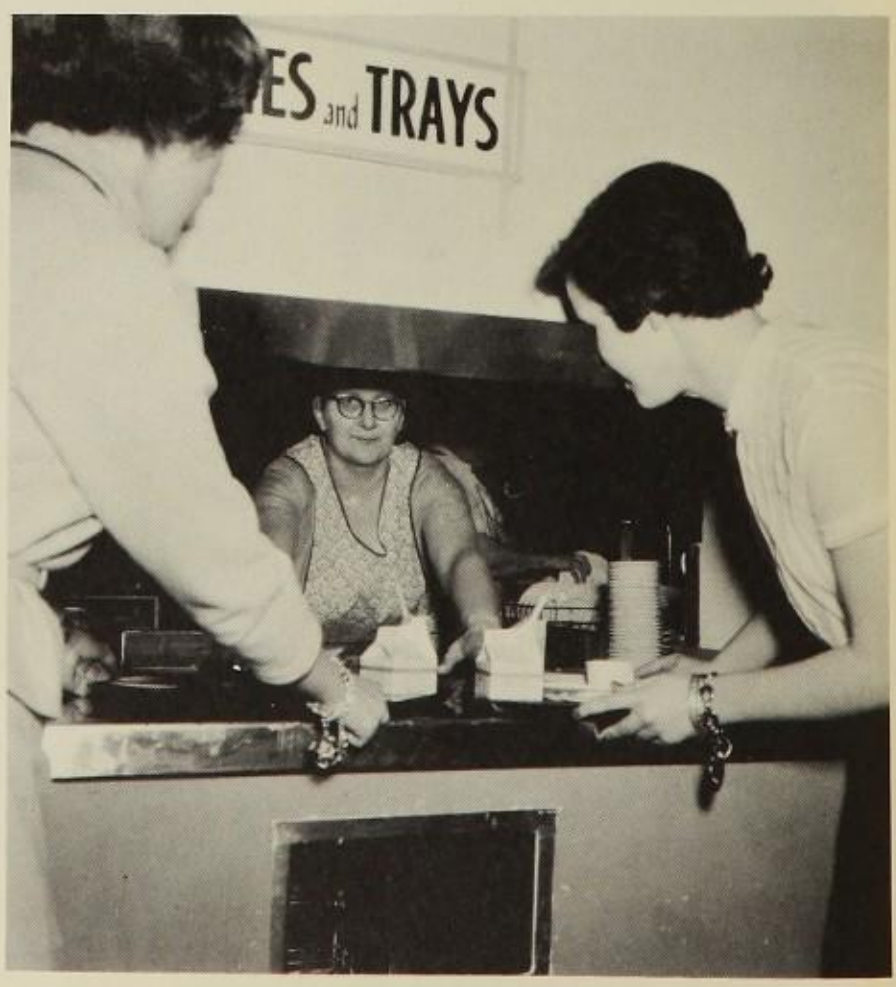
Art students Betsy Teemer, Carolyn Wargo, Charles Ricciotti, and Judy Lambert create a wintry backdrop for the production.

FEATURES

CHARM COURSE—Elaine Benson and Nancy Park sport new hair styles at the Y-Teens' Charm School, a three-session course at the YWCA in April and May, 1954. The course attracted nearly 75 Y-Teens.

NEW LUNCH PROGRAM—Re-decorated cafeterias and a re-vamped schedule made the mid-day break different this year. The two 45-minute lunch periods were discarded in favor of four 25-minute periods which gave students a 25-minute lunch period and a 25-minute study period. Boys and girls were permitted to eat in either the east or west cafeterias.



COLLEGE CLUB TEA—Club president Mrs. J. M. Johnston, Jr., pours tea for members of the class of 1954 on May 28 at the annual tea held by College Club for senior girls.

MUSICAL CURLS—Marsha Fairbaugh and Theresa Basa exclaim at the long curly hair worn by Bill Smart, Bill Miller, and Dave Boyd. The boys' coiffures, grown for appearance in the operetta, attracted wide attention.

D.A.R. PILGRIM—Senior Loretta Mesko was elected by her classmates as the 1955 Good Citizenship Pilgrim. The contest is sponsored by the D.A.R.'s Queen Aliquippa Chapter.

CROWNED HEADS—Highpoint of many social affairs is the crowning of a king and a queen. Here (at left) are two coronations. Gail Carnahan and Shirley Dobos (top) make Jack Sivak and Barbara Geyer the rulers of the November 19 Sock and Sweater Dance. Andrea Petach and Carol Cendrosky crown Gary Slater and Betty Anuszkiewicz as king and queen at the December 18 Senior Party.

Climax of the year's homemaking activity is the annual fashion show and tea for mothers when best manners and fanciest dresses are on display. This is the May, 1954, show.

The department's annual tea for faculty members brightens the holiday season with fancy decorations, dainty sandwiches, and cookies.

HOMEMAKING

HOMEMAKING COURSES in Foods and in Clothing introduce junior and senior girls to the fundamentals and the fine points of domestic management. They study the field of home economics from practical considerations like nutrition and pattern fitting to more graceful arts like table arrangement and costume modeling.

Work and fun combine in the spring nursery school when little brother and sister or the youngster next door are brought for a day full of stories, records, painting and eating. The "teachers" are Isabelle Hernandez, Joan Glunt, Carol Celishis, and Jean Kunkle.

Senior Band and A Cappella Choir combined in the Spring Festival to present the Coronation Scene from Boris Godounoff. The ensemble was probably the largest group ever to perform in the school's auditorium.

CHAMPIONS

TOP PENNSYLVANIA honors in the form of "Superior" ratings were won by eight McKeesport High music groups at the state-wide Forensic Contests, April 30 and May 1, 1954, at Williamsport, Pa.

"Superiors" were earned by the A Cappella Choir, Senior Band, Senior Orchestra, Trumpet Trio, Boys' Octet, Boys' Chorus, Girls' Chorus. Individuals winning "Superiors" were Lorraine Meskowski, xylophone; Tom Koneski, trumpet. Jerry Kowallis won an "Excellent" in tenor solo, as did Gail Oller in the speech finals with her Shakespearean reading.

The A Cappella Choir (left, above) at the Spring Festival under the direction of Mr. Barrett . . . the Senior Band (left) under the direction of Mr. De Simone and Mr. Rotili. The Festival, the ninth annual one staged by McKeesport's school music organizations, was presented in five evening performances between May 3 and May 12, 1954.

RETIREMENT

THREE CAREERS of service with the McKeesport Schools come to a close with the retirement of the men pictured on this page:

Mr. John F. Willauer has taught biology since he came to McKeesport in 1920 after teaching in Charleston and Linfield, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Frank J. Weigle came to McKeesport in 1916, after teaching in Somerset Schools. First a teacher of manual training, he became Supervisor of Industrial Education in 1922, principal of Shaw Avenue Building in 1935, and principal of Vocational School in 1940. He retired last June.

Mr. F. Frank Crall came to McKeesport in 1920 after teaching in Daviess County, Missouri. He taught social studies until 1935 when he became student counselor. In 1940 he became principal of Shaw Avenue Building and this year was principal of Market Street Building.

ASSEMBLIES

Assembly programs provide entertainment and information well as group participation. Typical of many presentations are the two pictured here: Yough-A-Mon and Education Week. Designed to launch the sales campaign, the yearbook program featured a skit involving a mix-up of Bermuda shorts; the actors are Connie Baczkowski, Janice Cray, Pat McGinn, Nick Sisley. The Education Week Program symbolized the contribution of education to American Civilization; the principal performers (at right) were Warren McIntosh, William Liddle, Gary Hale, Richard Friberg, Joan Caughey, Lenora Wills, Victor Bell.

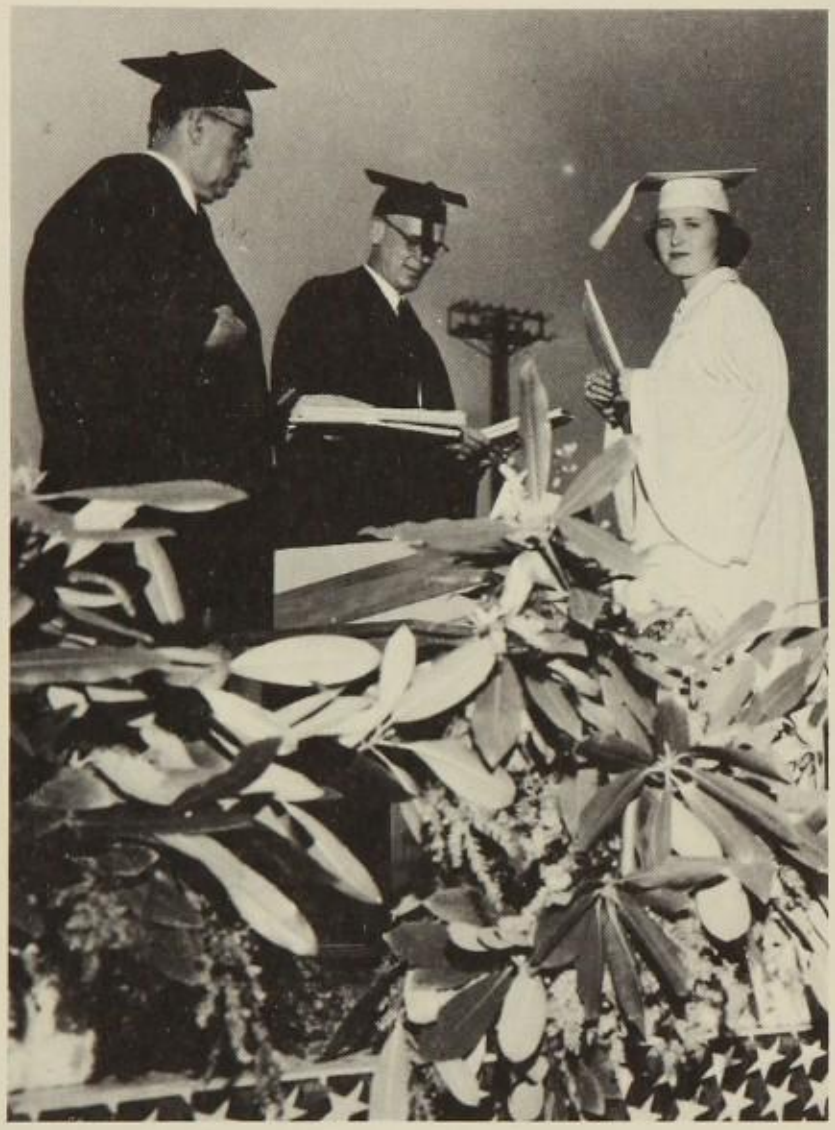
GRADUATION - JUNE, 1953



SIX HUNDRED and eighteen seniors of the Class of 1954 became graduates of McKeesport High School at Commencement exercises held June 8, 1954, at World War Memorial Field.

The class ceremonies began with a Baccalaureate Service on Sunday, June 6, when the sermon "What Have You Got?" was delivered by Reverend H. A. Bruder of the First United Presbyterian Church in McKeesport. The Commencement address, "The Essential Characteristics of an Educated Person," was given by Dr. C. Herman Grose, President of California State Teacher's College.
